

Amendments to the Specification

Please add the following new paragraphs after the paragraph ending with the words "input operations" on Page 4, Line 4:

In one embodiment, text and image information 101e are found within the electronic music marker 100. In one embodiment, the text and image information 101e includes text data, still image data, animated data, and video data.

A1 In one embodiment, the first e-button 104 and the second e-button 105 are a spring loaded button. In another embodiment, the first e-button 104 and the second e-button 105 are a television broadcast mark button.

In one embodiment, an infra red (IR) port 101g is housed within the electronic music marker 100.

In one embodiment, an external device 101f is configured to communicate with the electronic music marker 100. In one embodiment, the external device 101f is one of a personal computer, a personal digital assistant, a television, a mobile telephone, a pager, and a wireless communication device.
